The paramount issue of this campaign is the administration of William McKinley. — Senator Foraker at Youngstown.

An effort is being made to sell Ellenwood buttons, but they are proving to be a drug on the market. They won't sell for a cent a ton a month from now.

Canada will have an election November 7th, the day next after the election in the United States. The Dominion will find a good example set by Uncle Sam.

Mr. Coxy of Coxy Army fame, is building a new steel plant to cost a quarter of a million dollars. This is merely one of the many coincidences of the era of great prosperity.

During the month of August the American manufactured articles sent abroad amounted to $35,783,000. The United States is growing every day in an industrial way—as well as every other way.

Mr. Stevenson is characterized by the Parkersburg Sentinel (Democrat) as being Mr. Bryan's "Assistant Standard bearer." From the present look of things, Mr. Bryan is in dire need of many more than one "assistant."

Hon. Amos J. Cummings, the well known Tammany Congressman, has been stumping in Nebraska, and he says that the result in that state is a matter of "toss-up." Of course such an opinion must be very inspiring to the "Boy Orator."

The B. & O. railroad company has awarded the contract for the construction of a branch from Fairmont to Fairview, W. Va., a distance of eighteen miles, at a cost of half a million dollars. The B. & O. will do a good day's work when it definitely decides to bring its main line through Marietta.

The Washington County Republican Committee has been notified by Chairman Charles F. Dick, of the State Committee, that Senator Joseph B. Foraker will speak in Marietta on the evening of October 26th. The speech will be delivered in the Auditorium. This will be the occasion of a grand rally. The Committee has been most fortunate in securing the services of Senator Foraker. The Senator is probably the greatest orator in the United States Senate today. He will be given such a reception as becomes the occasion. It will not be necessary to ask the Republicans of Marietta and Washington County to hear him.

Republican Meeting.

Special to Leader.

Williamstown, W. Va., Oct. 11.—

Col. C. H. Dennison, an able orator of New York, addressed the citizens of this community tonight on the issues of the campaign. The speaker was introduced by Attorney T. F. Barrett and spoke eloquently of national questions. The meeting was well attended and much interest was shown.

In this paper is printed the full program of the Woman's Federation convention, to be held in the latter part of this month. It promises to be one of the important events in the history of Marietta.

Mr. Bryan is intoxicated with confidence, but he will be fully sobered up a month hence.

ONCE MORE

Wesley Fouts Defies the Law and Runs a Gambling Room.

Probably the third time that Wesley Fouts' gambling room, over the Lodge saloon on Front street, is raided, will prove to be the charm and discourage operations there in the future. Last evening Officers Putnam and Kerns raided Fouts' gambling den and took the proprietor in charge. Another fine to the limit of the law, imposed by Mayor Sykes, may have a healthy effect on Fouts, and convince him that gambling is not such a profitable business when fines are as frequent as they have been during the past few months.

MR. CHAS. FROHMAN PRESENTS
"MISS HOBBS."

"Miss Hobbs" comes heralded as one of New York's greatest successes, and those who have had the good fortune to see this play can easily tell why this comedy has created such a favorable impression on the theatre going public.

Miss Hobbs is a young woman who might be made obtrusely "new." She is a girl with a "mission," that thing of masculine terror which bears about the same relation to modern society as the Gorgon did in mythological days. Miss Hobbs' avowed and particular object in life is to impress upon her women friends the tyranny of man and the slavery of marriage. She disrupts the household of the Kingsears, a newly-married couple, breaks an engagement between another pair, and makes herself altogether thoroughly hated by the men concerned. But eventually Miss Hobbs discovers that her opinions are not so firmly rooted after all, and when the right man comes along she decides that she is a goose, and admits her surrender by kissing her conqueror before everybody.

"Miss Hobbs" will hold the boards at the Auditorium next Saturday, October 13th. Seats now on sale at Gates Book Store. L. M. LUCHS, Mgr.

THE FLAMING ARROW.

Lincoln J. Carter's presentation of this play was witnessed by only a fair house at the Auditorium Thursday evening. The play is characteristic of all of Carter's plays and is of considerable interest to one who likes that particular kind of play. Some pretty scenery is used and the acting was fair. The principal feature of the show is a band of Indians who appear during the action of the play and their acting is creditable, as is also that of the leading actress, Princess Go Wan Go Mohawk.

Mrs. B. O'SHAUGHNESSY'S DAUGHTERS.

That Tony Sullivan is original in all his work is clearly evidenced in all of his creations. He is an actor who copies no one, but relies solely upon his own individuality, abilities and conception to give life and color to his interpretations, and his success in the past is sufficient proof to predict unbounded prosperity for his latest and greatest creation, "Mrs. B. O'Shaughnessy, wash lady," which is scheduled for presentation at the Auditorium Monday, Oct. 15th. Seats on sale at Beagle & Lytle's drug store. M. G. SEIPEL, Mgr.

Justices' Courts.

In Squire McDerfott's court Thursday the case of W. J. McKibben vs. the Colonial Oil and Gas Co. received a hearing. Mr. McKibben sued the Colonial for money which he alleges was due him for services performed for the company in the capacity of field boss. Judgment was rendered in his favor for $113.12.

N. McKinney, who was arrested several days ago, charged with keeping a gambling den at Newport, will have his hearing in Squire McDerfott's court this morning.

George Harris and Angeline Hupp will also come before the Squire this morning charged with illegal cohabitation. Neither could give bond, so the Hupp woman was remanded to jail, while Harris was released to hunt up witnesses to prove his innocence of the charge made against him.

Mayor's Court.

J. H. Mitchell was given $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. He is a printer and claimed to have accidentally taken too much whisky to relieve the pain in a mashed hand.

An umbrella mender who gave his name as Stockdale Smith was given $5 and costs for the same charge, which he will work out.

The point we want to emphasize is 'reliability.' It may sound egotistical to hear a man praise himself, but that does not alter facts. A little honest self pride is all right if it is honest.
